

YOUTH AND CHILDRENS WORKER

Person Specification

A wholehearted follower of Christ: faith expressing itself in love

A learner who is hungry to grow in knowledge of God's grace, God's Word and God's Spirit.

Leading by example in godly character, humility and servanthood.

A prayerful person

A relational person who brings people together and builds others up.

A distinctive witness of Christ who seeks to live out the gospel in everyday life.

Experience of working with young people; and teenagers specifically.

The role will involve working with teenagers both in the church and the community.

Ability to teach the Bible and disciple young people in a way that equips them to apply their faith to the whole of life.

An understanding of the challenges facing young people today to care for their pastoral needs.

A wise and strategic use of social media to connect with young people

A team player, able to work well with church leaders and volunteers

Able to recruit, motivate and equip volunteers to serve with young people

Enthusiastic about developing our good connections with local schools

Pioneer outreach to teenagers in the community

ⁱ Note: A Genuine Occupational Requirement in accordance with Part 1 of Schedule 9 of the Equality Act 2010.